

Reading and Evaluating Example Conclusions

Excerpt 1

Task of the Conclusion	Order in the Section
Does the author summarize their claim? If so, paraphrase it.
Does the author(s) summarize their findings? If so, list it/them.
Does the author(s) name limitations of the research? If so, summarize them.
Does the author(s) explain what practical problem their research solves? If so, summarize it.
Does the author(s) explain what theoretical problem or gap the research solves/provides? If so, summarize it.
What closing thought does the author leave the reader with?	Last

How effective did you think this Conclusion was? Why?

Excerpt 2

Task of the Conclusion	Order in the Section
Does the author summarize their claim? If so, paraphrase it.
Does the author(s) summarize their findings? If so, list it/them.
Does the author(s) name limitations of the research? If so, summarize them.
Does the author(s) explain what practical problem their research solves? If so, summarize it.
Does the author(s) explain what theoretical problem or gap the research solves/provides? If so, summarize it.
What closing thought does the author leave the reader with?	Last

How effective did you think this Conclusion was? Why?

Excerpt 3

Task of the Conclusion	Order in the Section
Does the author summarize their claim? If so, paraphrase it.
Does the author(s) summarize their findings? If so, list it/them.
Does the author(s) name limitations of the research? If so, summarize them.
Does the author(s) explain what practical problem their research solves? If so, summarize it.
Does the author(s) explain what theoretical problem or gap the research solves/provides? If so, summarize it.
What closing thought does the author leave the reader with?	Last

How effective did you think this Conclusion was? Why?